The ROV Manual-Robert D Christ 2013-10-16 Written by two well-known experts in the field with input from a broad network of industry specialists, The ROV Manual, Second Edition provides a complete training and reference guide to the use of observation class ROVs for surveying, inspection, and research purposes. This new edition has been thoroughly revised and substantially expanded, with nine new chapters, increased coverage of mid-sized ROVs, and extensive information on subsystems and enabling technologies. Useful tips are included throughout to guide users in gaining the maximum benefit from ROV technology in deep water applications. Intended for marine and offshore engineers and technicians using ROVs, The ROV Manual, Second Edition is also suitable for use by ROV designers and project managers in client companies making use of ROV technology. A complete user guide to observation class ROV (remotely operated vehicle) technology and underwater deployment for industrial, commercial, scientific, and recreational tasks Substantially expanded, with nine new chapters and a new five-part structure separating information on the industry, the vehicle, payload sensors, and other aspects Packed with hard-won insights and advice to help you achieve mission results quickly and efficiently The Duckweed Genomes-Xuan Hieu Cao 2020-01-07 This book tells the story behind the first Spirodela genome sequencing project. Further, it describes the current genomics applications of these findings, and efforts to sequence new genomes within the family. The closing chapters address the sequencing of the over 1 Gigabase Wolfia genomes, which could have major impacts on genome evolution and agricultural research. The duckweed or Lemnaceae family is a collection of 5 genera and 37 species of the smallest, fastest-growing flowering plants. Many of these aquatic monocotyledonous plants can grow all over the world, in a variety of climates. Given their simplified and neotenous morphology, duckweeds have been researched for several decades as a model species for plant physiology and ecotoxicological research, contributing to our understanding e.g. of flowering response, plant circadian systems, sulfur assimilation pathways and auxin biosynthesis. In addition, duckweed-based treatment has been a favorite and feasible means, especially in developing countries, of removing phosphorus and pharmaceutical chemicals from sewage and wastewater. With a dry annual mass yield per hectare of up to 80 tonnes (equivalent to 10 tonnes of protein), duckweed is also a promising aquatic crop in new modern and sustainable agriculture. Besides being an excellent primary or supplemental feedstock for the production of livestock and fish, duckweed biomass can be utilized as a potential resource for human nutrition, biofuel, or bioplastics, depending on water quality as well as protein or starch accumulating procedures. These academic and commercial interests have led to international efforts to sequence the Spirodela polyrhiza genome, the smallest and most ancient genome in the family.

The ROV Manual-Robert D Christ 2011-04-01 The ROV Manual: A User Guide for Observation-Class Remotely Operated Vehicles is the first manual to provide a basic ""How To"" for using small observation-class ROVs for surveying, inspection and research procedures. It serves as a user guide that offers complete training and information about ROV operations for technicians, underwater activities enthusiasts, and engineers working offshore. The book focuses on the observation-class ROV and underwater uses for industrial, recreational, commercial, and scientific studies. It provides information about marine robotics and navigation tools used to obtain mission results and data faster and more efficiently. This manual also covers two common denominators: the technology and its application. It introduces the basic technologies needed and their relationship to specific requirements; and it helps identify the equipment essential for a cost-effective and efficient operation. This user guide can be invaluable in marine research and surveying, crime investigations, harbor security, military and coast guarding, commercial boating, diving and fishing, nuclear energy and hydroelectric inspection, and ROV courses in marine and petroleum engineering. * The first book to focus on observation class ROV (Remotely Operated Vehicle) underwater deployment in real conditions for industrial, commercial, scientific and recreational tasks * A complete user guide to ROV operation with basic information on underwater robotics and navigation equipment to obtain mission results quickly and efficiently * Ideal for anyone involved with ROVs complete with self-learning questions and answers

Conquistadors-Michael Wood 2015-05-14 The Spanish conquest of the Americas in the 16th century was one of the most important and cataclysmic events in history. Spanish expeditions endured incredible hardships in order to open up the lands of the 'New World', and few stories in history can match these for drama and endurance. In Conquistadors, Michael Wood follows in the footsteps of some of the greatest of the Spanish adventurers travelling from the forests of Amazonia to Lake Titicaca, the deserts of North Mexico, the snowpeaks of the Andes and the heights of Machu Picchu. He experiences the epic journeys of Cortes, Pizarro, Orellana and Cabeza de Vaca, and explores the turbulent and terrifying events surrounding the Spanish conquest of the Aztec and Inca empires. Wood brings these stories to vivid life, highlighting both the heroic accomplishments and the complex moral legacy of the European invasion. Conquistadors is Michael Wood at his best - thoughtful, provocative and gripping history.

American Wildlife Art-David J. Wagner 2008

A Tall Tail-Charles Stross 2012-09-19 From the author of Rule 34 and Halting State, a tale of deception, engineering, and the most unlikely rocket propulsion technology imaginable. At the Publisher's request, this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software (DRM) applied.

Oil Shale Development in the United States-James T. Bartis 2005-09-16 In the early 1980s, industry and government took a hard look at the economics of extracting oil from vast deposits of shale that lie beneath the western United States. Oil prices subsided, and interest waned. With oil prices spiking and global demand showing no signs of abating, reexamining the economics of oil shale makes sense. In this report, the authors describe oil shale resources; suitability, cost, and performance of new technologies; and key policy issues that need to be addressed by government decisionmakers in the near future.

Oil, Power, and War-Matthieu Auzanneau 2018-11 "Oil, Power, and War is a sweeping, unabashed history of oil, told by French journalist Matthieu Auzanneau. It provides a detailed account of the people and events that drove the oil industry from its earliest days, and takes a critical look at the way oil interests have commandeered politics and economies, changed cultures, disrupted power balances across the globe, and spawned wars. The author exposes the greed and reckless behavior--by a long line of characters from John D. Rockefeller to Dick Cheney--that moved oil along its destructive, unsustainable path, from its heyday when the first oil wells were drilled to the quest for new sources as old ones dried up. The author traces the rise of the Seven Sisters and other oil cartels, and follows the thread of oil through the crises that have shaped our times: two world wars, the Cold War, the Great Depression and the 2008 financial crash, oil shocks, wars in the Middle East, the race for Africa's oil riches, and more. We learn lesser-known stories, too, like how New York City taxes were once funneled directly to banks run by oil barons, after the city was about to default on its debt. And we gain new perspective on the central role of oil in military conflicts over the past 100 years. Now that there is much less oil available, Auzanneau looks to the future and warns that even greater conflict may arise"--

Ava's Quest- 2015-09-30 An unstable king, a treasonous duke, and a lonely dragon have only one thing in common: a magically cursed knife. The dragon made it. The king will do anything to keep it. The duke commissioned it. The king will do anything to keep it. To save her nation, Ava will steal it.

Math Workbook for ISEE, SSAT & HSP2 Prep-Allen Koh 2011-07-01 Cardinal Education is an educational consulting and tutoring company based in Palo Alto, CA. Guided by a philosophy of fulfilling students' academic potential in a way that boosts skills and confidence for life, we work to maximize successful middle school, high school, and college admissions outcomes. While some of our methods defy "conventional wisdom," we have a proven track record with a broad range of students: the Ivy League bound to those wishing to avoid community college, the self-motivated to the intrinsigently jaded, and the profoundly gifted to learning disabled. We have a passion for expanding students' dreams and helping them attain their goals.Cardinal Education believes in the social value of a strong public education system and sponsors pro bono programs to bring private sector expertise to bear. However, government fiscal policies are shortchanging public schools of opportunities: activities, sports, variety of classes, advanced classes, student: teacher ratios, and counseling departments. The "private school imperative" means that despite economic trends, admission to private school is becoming so competitive that it necessitates standardized testing excellence.The philosophy of this math workbook is rigor and drill. Because this is the first test students take that actively tries to trick students at every turn, students who sit for these standardized exams need reflexive familiarity with computation (math facts), problem types, and strategy. The entrance exams are the first standardized tests for which budgeting time is a significant issue. Students need to spend the majority of time on analysis to avoid getting tricked rather than computation. By building skills, speed, and confidence, we hope to eliminate anxiety and give students a solid foundation on which to build excellent scores.This book is intended as a supplement for our highly trained staff, so it does not include strategies. However, motivated students can use it successfully with occasional help from a teacher or parent. Each chapter is comprised of units, with each unit comprised of 4 problem sets of difficulty, increasing in a logically progressive manner. Students should do as many of the 4 problem sets for each unit as it takes to achieve a 90% accuracy rate. Students taking lower level exams should complete problems 1-10 in each set. Students competing for high school admissions should complete each problem set in its entirety. Questions or feedback: Info@CardinalEducation.com

Urban Transport XXI-C.A. Brebbia 2015-06-02 Urban Transport XXI contains the proceedings of the 21st International Conference on Urban Transport and the Environment. The series of annual conferences organised by the Wessex Institute was first held in 1995. Transportation in urban areas, with its related environmental and social impacts, is a topic of significant concern for policymakers in both municipal and central government and for the urban citizens who need effective and efficient transport systems. Urban transport systems require considerable studies to devise and then safeguard their operational use, maintenance and safety. Transportation systems produce significant environmental impacts and can enhance or degrade the quality of life in urban centres. Clearly the challenge of providing effective and efficient transport systems in urban settings remains an acute concern, with financial, political and environmental constraints limiting the ability of transport system planners and operators to deliver the high quality outcomes expected by the public. Papers cover such topics as: Urban Transport Planning and Management; Urban Transport Strategies; Public Transport Systems; Environmental Aspects; Economic and Social Impact; Safety and Security; Travel Behaviour Studies; Customer Satisfaction; Transportation Modelling and Simulation; Infrastructure Development; Intelligent and Advanced Transport Systems; Transportation Integration; City Logistics; Resilience and Inter-modal Transport Systems; Mass Transport Strategies; Social Impacts; Freight Transport; Railway Systems; Transport Governance and Administration; Port and City; Mobility and Public Space; Life Cycle Management.

Stan Douglas-Stan Douglas 2005 Picture a six-minute conversation filmed by 20 cameras, then sliced, diced and reshuffled by computer into a film that's 157-hours long. (Yes, that's more than a week, but you don't have to watch the whole thing at once.) It's the essence of Stan Douglas, who "witholds the artificial neatness of conclusion and gives us instead a sense of the interminable," as one admiring critic wrote. In Inconsolable Memories, Douglas uses photos he took in Cuba as the base for his unique approach to narrative, putting together a look at exile and identity against the backdrop of the 1980 Mariel Boatlift. Includes essays by Svon Luttiken and Phillip Monk, the lavishly illustrated screenplay, and 40 color plates of recent photographs.

The Edwardians-J. B. Priestley 2000 Although the Edwardian era as a golden age of peace, prosperity and tranquility, it was also one of hope and of new ideas, of inventions such as the radio and the aeroplane, and a ferment of activity in politics, social controversy and the arts.

How I Became a Freak-Rick Brightfield 1998 After being turned into a horrible monster at a carnival house of mirrors, the reader must make plot choices that determine whether or not the freak returns to normal.

Be it over the knee, the desk, the chair, or on the bare, the desire to punish and be punished doesn't let up for a moment. The Spanking Man by Monica Belle When an older, balding squat bodied man threatens to spank Tamara Chertsey, not only is she outraged but she actually blames herself for not being bold enough to put him in his place the moment he suggests it. But as the night wears on, the images of a spanking become almost unbearable. As days go by her fantasies consume her to the point she must act upon them, but does she go too far? Perfect Bound by Shanna Germain An erotic bookstore with a typical looking librarian behind the counter? I think not. Read on and find out just exactly what she has to offer when she asks if there is something in particular this young man is searching for. Who is she really? Advantage Headmaster by Philippa Johnson James Bendrick, Headmaster of a private girls' boarding school knew what he wanted. The Top Prizes. Trophy cabinets full of results. But there were other prizes he desired. After eyeing a tennis match on his CCTV from the privacy of his own office he decided that Nina Birch was in need of a little more of his attention. Wearing a thong on the tennis court was not to be allowed and with that had to come some discipline, discipline that Nina had not yet been subjected to. Anatomy of a Brat by Poppy St Vincent Can one really want, no desire the brutality she seeks? Does she disobey on purpose; mark her beautiful white skin for attention? Does she want Dan to be part of this world she lives in, or does she really only want him as a friend. You be the judge of what her desires really are? Master and Commander by Sadie Wolf His favorite thing is oral sex and making women come first. Now isn't that a man we'd all like to meet? When Jill sets Rebecca up with her brother Mark, she believes she might have finally met the right one, but has she? On their first meeting she begs him to forgive her, to punish her for what she's done, but will he? Perversion Process by Rachel Kramar Bussel Did Oliver really turn Serena into a pervert or had she been one all along? She knew right from their very first date he was assertive, the sort of man that took what he wanted, how he wanted. Could she trust him, allow him to take over her body and do with what he pleased? Was she ready for the brutality she knew would be forthcoming? Would she use the safeword, and risk disappointing him if she could take no more? Bitch by Ashley Hind So boldly confident was I until I met her. One look from her and I was utterly under her spell. Never in my wildest dreams would I have imagined that I would be so bold as to caress the bottom of the statue of Erato and then to tongue the cold marble in front of a perfect stranger just to get her attention, and yet I did. I beckoned her to follow, leaving my door ajar, knowing when I turned she would be there and she didn't disappoint but when she slapped me, well, the battle for supremacy was on. Paying for It by Justine Elyot Professor Strict. She found him on a website. Did she dare, could she make an appointment to see him, to ask a complete stranger to spank her? She does and when she asks does he really only fuck the naughtiest and is this just a job to him, he accedes. But when he decides to leave this dream job is she ready for what comes next? It's All Jenna Jameson's Fault by Cynanne Being an exhibitionist made it easy for Lacey to become a lap dancer but when the club she was working in closed down she could only work as a topless dancer. She quickly became bored, desperate for her old life. When she received a copy of Jenna Jameson's book, How to Make Love Like a Porn Star, it gave her and idea of how to make her job more interesting. Called into the manager's office to explain her antics she gets more than she bargained for. Spend or Save by Heidi Champa The shoe department was the one place she promised Jake she'd stay out of but try as she might she just couldn't. She was addicted to not just shoes but accessories as well. So when Jake calls to say he's working late she reveals in the freedom of being able to bring out all her hidden treasures and is parading about in her new boots when he comes home early. Enraged he ties her to the bed and begins a spanking she will never forget but will she really remember her promises? Red by Charlotte Stein Someone has spanked Blake Cooper's ass. The biggest, most arrogant of douchbags to walk the earth has been spanked but by who? Does he cry tears of shame in delicious agony Scarlet wonders? Unable to clear her mind of images she conjured up in her mind she becomes obsessed as to who it could have been to lay that red imprint on his ass. The Corporal's Punishment by Robin Moreton Corporal Charley Compton was called into General Rufus K Slocum's tent. He had defied a direct order, the action having saved his brother, Jimmy's life. The General though demands obedience and when his orders are defied the culprit must be punished. But the Corporal has defied something else, something that none of the other soldiers could possibly know and now the General has found out. What punishment will this hold? The Happiest Days by Amelia Thornton Being a teacher isn't easy as Miss Smithson well knows so when Fridays come she's happy to leave her workplace to rush home and take her place at being a pupil again and in her mind the happiest days of her life. This Friday though she forgets the time and arrives late only to bear the wrath for her tardiness. Pat-a-Cake by Sandrine Lopez Not nipples, clit or a g-spot can hold a candle to fingers and palms for this young lady. Hands had always held a fascination for her so when young Scott ran his hot tongue up her palm and slid it between her fingers, sucking on them one by one, she almost passed out with ecstatic bliss. Then along came Dylan who introduced her into other ways to use her hands and his. Reading Between the Lines by Izzie French. With the internet knocking her trade Sophia couldn't wait to run upstairs to the room holding her late father's collection of erotica. She loved nothing more than to masturbate with an open book, knowing she could be seen if so desired from at least one inhabitant from the university buildings. She sighed with pleasure remembering of days long ago only to become alerted to someone standing in the shadows. He has a business proposition for her but before that he proposes something else. Spanker's Justice by Aishling Morgan Someone has left behind the evidence. An empty packet of condoms and "the Hatchet" as Commander Buchanan is called, is not pleased. What sort of punishment should Olivia Fielding, who incidentally is a lady in her own right, her father being and Earl and all, receive for such outrageous behavior. As she stands there blubbering, "the Hatchet" looks on in disgust while she contemplates her options, including shaving off her hair, but will she go that far, or will another punishment be more suitable? From Wanting to Wanton by Laurel Aspen Luke Forbes is researching material for a book and Rose Hill, the senior Librarian, is taken aback when she finds the subject matter is Erotic writing, written by and for women. Rose beings to delve into a few short stories and brings up some interesting questions. Luke, a man who knows what he wants, suggests she act upon them and the outcome is surprising causing her to question her own reckless emotions and reactions. But did Luke know all along what the outcome would be? Butt in a Sling by Landon Dixon Did sweet imee, a twenty-year-old Filipina, know what she was doing? Warren Williams was a General who demanded proper attire. Imee, sweet and innocent knew exactly what she was doing and Warren knew exactly what he wanted. Spanked by My Own Step-Daughter by Teresa Joseph Rodger was forty seven and I was twenty two. Oh, I knew what question he to question her own reckless didn't care. He wasn't going through a midlife crisis and even his ex-wife could see how happy we were together, so when his daughter Stacey made it clear that she would not tolerate anything, and I must stress anything, that made her dad unhappy I thought she was just being over protective. When one day I innocently borrowed some money from Rodger's wallet I soon came to realize that Stacey had much more on her mind than just her father's wellbeing. Hot Enough for June by Philip Kemp June and Mark have only been living together for a few months so when she sneaks in late after a night out with the girls she sees a new side of Mark that she's not sure she likes. After what could only be an interrogation she's shocked to see what he does next?
