Griffa!-Aa.Vv. 2011-11-10T00:00+01:00
Con prefazione di Enrico Crispolti
Nell'ambito di una rilettura filologica del Futurismo, nei suoi sviluppi temporali e nel progressivo ampliamento degli interessi, acquista un valore significativo la riproposizione di una rivista futurista del 1920 pressoché sconosciuta. "Griffa!", dal nome di battaglia di fazioni perugine dal Duecento al Quattrocento, fu un periodico dei futuristi umbri che uscì ben presto dalla provincia per assumere un ruolo nazionale, sia per le firme che vi scrissero, sia per le redazioni romana e milanese e le altre corrispondenze, sia per la diffusione in molte città del centro-nord. Diretto da Gerardo Dottori e Alberto Presenzini Mattoli, uscì per quasi l'intero arco del 1920 in dodici numeri. Voleva svegliare l'ambiente culturale dell' Umbria, che viveva una lunga stagione di letargo, ma finì per essere una delle voci autorevoli degli sviluppi del Futurismo a livello nazionale, ospitando testi di Marinetti, Bottai ed altri esponenti del Movimento ed occupandosi di arte, musica, letteratura e costume. Il volume riproduce in fac-simile l'intera collezione della rivista, conservata in raccolte incomplete in poche biblioteche pubbliche. L'Associazione Archivi Gerardo Dottori di Perugia, sostenuta dal Comune di Perugia e dalla Regione Umbria ne ha promosso la pubblicazione in occasione del centenario futurista. L'analisi filologica è stata affidata ad Antonella Pesola, storica dell'arte con consolidata esperienza in materia di Futurismo. La prefazione è di Enrico Crispolti, già direttore della Scuola specializzazione in Storia dell'arte all'Università degli Studi di Siena e tra i maggiori esperti di Futurismo. A completamento del discorso sul Futurismo in Umbria, il cui esponente più significativo è stato Gerardo Dottori, il riconosciuto maestro dell'Aeropittura, la pubblicazione illustra i prodromi dell'avanguardia culturale di Perugia dal 1913 con la pubblicazione de "Il Refrattario", qui interamente riprodotto, un foglio di un gruppo di giovani intellettuali, fra cui Presenzini Mattoli e Dottori, in cui si discute anche del Futurismo che era in quegli anni "esploso" a Milano. Questa esperienza è analizzata dallo storico Domenico Cialfi. L'opera è corredata da una cronologia degli eventi, da un dizionario biobibliografico dei personaggi trattati e da preziosi indici della testata e dei nomi, apparati curati da un'equipe di giovani ricercatori: Andrea Baffoni, Francesca Duranti, Samanta Retini. Massimo Duranti è nato Perugia nel 1947. Critico d'arte, giornalista pubblicista, storico del Futurismo, collabora dagli anni Settanta con quotidiani e riviste specializzate. Esperto di Futurismo, di avanguardie storiche, ma aperto anche alle esperienze estetiche attuali, ha pubblicato numerosi saggi ed articoli in occasione di mostre e rassegne storiche, in particolare sulla genesi e la storia dell'Aeropittura e degli aeropittori. Ha pubblicato ricerche e organizzato mostre anche sul tema del rapporto tra l'arte sacra, il Futurismo e l'arte contemporanea. Ha curato nel 2006 il Catalogo generale dell'opera di Gerardo Dottori e una cospicua monografia nel 2009 su Alessandro Bruschetti. Ha organizzato numerose mostre e cataloghi per istituzioni pubbliche e private in Italia e all'estero. Nel 2004 ha fondato l'Associazione culturale Archivi Gerardo Dottori di cui è presidente. Antonella Pesola è nata a Cremona nel 1964. Laureata in Storia dell'arte presso l'Università degli Studi di Perugia, ha conseguito la specializzazione in Storia dell'arte all'Università degli Studi di Siena sotto la guida di Enrico Crispolti. Si è occupata di campagne di schedatura in collaborazione con: Regione Umbria, Soprintendenza ai Beni Artistici dell'Umbria e Diocesi di Perugia-Città della Pieve. Si è dedicata dal 1995 anche alla Biblioteconomia ed Archivistica. Attualmente è responsabile della Biblioteca della Galleria Civica d'Arte Moderna di Spoleto "G. Carandente". Si impegna da vari anni negli studi storico-artistici collaborando con diversi istituti di ricerca e riviste anche attraverso l'attività di critica militante.
Pubblica regolarmente dal 1993. È membro degli Archivi Gerardo Dottori dove, già dal 1996, si occupa, con ricerche e pubblicazioni del futurista perugino. I suoi studi hanno riguardato in particolar modo il Secondo Futurismo specie nei suoi sviluppi in Umbria.Ha curato con Domenico Cialfi nel 2009 la mostra Umbria futurista: 1912-1944 con relativo catalogo edito da Thyrus.

Pokko and the Drum-Matthew Forsythe 2019-10-01
A Publishers Weekly Most Anticipated Book for Fall 2019 “In embracing one’s own beat, Pokko discovers, extraordinary things can happen.” —Publishers Weekly (starred review) “Forsythe’s coy, playful writing is a wonder on its own, but the lush...illustrations beautifully elevate the tale...Inspirational.” —Booklist (starred review) “Celebrating both community and individuality, this droll, funny offering will tickle kids and adults alike.” —Kirkus Reviews “Has the feel of an instant classic, the kind of book you can easily convince yourself has been around forever, spreading joy.” —Quill & Quire (starred review)
From E.B. White Read Aloud honor artist Matthew Forsythe comes a picture book about a magical drum, an emerald forest, and the little frog who dares to make her own music. The biggest mistake Pokko’s parents ever made was giving her the drum. When Pokko takes the drum deep into the forest it is so quiet, so very quiet that Pokko decides to play. And before she knows it she is joined by a band of animals —first the raccoon, then the rabbit, then the wolf—and soon the entire forest is following her. Will Pokko hear her father’s voice when he calls her home? Pokko and the Drum is a story about art, persistence, and a family of frogs living in a mushroom.

Special Educational Needs and Inclusive Practices-Fabio Dovigo 2017-01-28
“Today, school is becoming a rapidly changing learning environment. Thinking about students as a homogeneous population is no longer allowed, as diversity - in terms of culture, language, gender, family organisation, learning styles and so on - has emerged as a key challenge for education today.The debate on Special Educational Needs largely reflects this challenge, as working in school implies careful reconsideration of what we mean by “normal” and “special”. Current educational intervention is generally based on a deficit and “within-child” model of facing SEN, whereas very little attention is given to the role of learning environments. The focus is on the child more than on the whole class, and on cognition and technical provisions more than on affective, sociocultural and community dimensions of learning. Conversely, regarding students and their needs as “hidden voices” allows us to adopt a transformative approach which sees diversity as a stimulus for the development of educational practices that might benefit all children and help school to become an inclusive and “moving” organisation.The aim of the book is twofold: on the one hand, it offers a systematic overview of the inclusive education state-of-the-art in six countries (Germany, Italy, Norway, Sweden, UK, and USA) based on the contributions by well-known scholars such as Christy Ashby, Barbara Brokamp, Fabio Dovigo, Kari Nes, Mara Westling Alodi, Tony Booth, and Beth Ferri; on the other hand, the book analyses five cases of good practices of inclusion related to different subjects and school levels.”

Street Fonts-Claudia Walde 2018-01-18
Classic graffiti lettering and experimental typographical forms lie at the heart of street culture and have long inspired designers in many different fields. But graffiti artists, who tend to paint the same letters of their tag again and again, rarely design complete alphabets. Claudia Walde has spent over two years collecting alphabets by 154 artists from 30 countries with a view to showing the many different styles and approaches to lettering within the graffiti and street art cultures. All of the artists have roots in graffiti. Some are world renowned such as 123 Klan (Canada), Faith47 (South Africa) and Hera (Germany); others are lesser known or only now starting to emerge. Each artist received the same brief: to design all 26 letters of the Latin alphabet within the limits of a single page of the book. How they approached this task and selected the media with which to express their ideas was entirely up to them. The results are a fascinating insight into the creative process.

The Lumière Galaxy-Francesco Casetti 2015-03-03
Francesco Casetti believes new media technologies are producing an exciting new era in cinema aesthetics. Whether we experience film in the theater, on our hand-held devices, in galleries and museums, onboard and in flight, or up in the clouds in the bits we download, cinema continues to alter our habits and excite our imaginations. Casetti travels from the remote corners of film history and theory to the most surprising sites on the internet and in our cities to prove the ongoing relevance of cinema. He does away with traditional notions of canon, repetition, apparatus, and spectatorship in favor of new keywords, including expansion, relocation, assemblage, and performance. The result is an innovative understanding of cinema’s place in our lives and culture, along with a critical sea-change in the study of the art. The more the nature of cinema transforms, the more it discovers its own identity, and Casetti helps readers realize the galaxy of possibilities embedded in the medium.

Aquatlantic-Giorgio Carpinteri 2020-09-15
A Raw artist returns, and Atlantis exists, in this new and original graphic novel from one of the great Italian comics masters, published in English for the first time. In this graphic novel, Aqualantics maintain a fragile peace with their "surface brothers"—as long as their world remains a myth. But when an actor who plays the character of the “indefensible Earthman,” all cynicism and vulgarity, is gradually possessed by his role, a chain reaction jeopardizes the entire kingdom and the uneasy peace between the two species. Giorgio Carpinteri’s sheer graphic brilliance — fusing aspects of Futurism, Cubism, Russian Constructivism, and German Expressionism with echoes of Bauhaus and distinct whims of Art Deco — would be enough to carry this brilliant fantasy, but Aqualantic is also a lyrical, allegorical masterpiece exploring the relationship between the conscious and unconscious, the known and the unknown.
Suspended Conversations-Martha Langford 2001
“In Suspended Conversations Martha Langford breathes life into photographic albums. These travelogues, memoirs, thematic collections, and family sagas embody the intimate preoccupations of their compilers and the great events of a golden photographic age, 1860 to 1960. Langford also traces the influence of photograph albums on the installations, photo narratives, and photo sequences of contemporary artists. Whether dealing with art, museum archives, or the family heirloom, Suspended Conversations bring photography into the great conversation about how we remember our stories and send them into the future.”--BOOK JACKET.Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America, Inc. Dark Side of the Boom-Georgina Adam 2018-01-05
This book scrutinizes the excesses and extravagances that the 21st-century explosion of the contemporary art market brought in its wake. The buying of art as an investment, temptations to forgery and fraud, tax evasion, money laundering and pressure to produce more and more art all form part of this story, as do the upheavals in auction houses and the impact of the enhanced use of financial instruments on art transactions. Drawing on a series of tenaciously wrought interviews with artists, collectors, lawyers, bankers and convicted artist forgers, the author charts the voracious commodification of artists and art objects, and art's position in the clandestine puzzle of the highest echelons of global capital. Adam's revelations appear even more timely in the wake of the Panama Papers revelations, for example incorporating examples of the way tax havens have been used to stash art transactions - and ownership - away from public scrutiny. With the same captivating style of her bestselling Big Bucks: The Explosion of the Art Market in the 21st Century, Georgina Adam casts her judicious glance over a section of the art market whose controversies and intrigues will be of eye-opening interest to both art-world players and observers.

The Tactile Workshops-Bruno Munari 2004

Skin Project-Silvia Alessi 2019-10-28
A fate of marginalisation affects women hit by a particularly hideous kind of violence, so common in the Indian subculture: the acid attack. For trivial reasons (a refusal or jealousy), women are punished by acquaintances (almost never by strangers): scarred forever, almost killed, and rejected by society. Their skin melts, and if you do not intervene in time, they even come to lose sight and hearing.Now, several women who have suffered this attack and who will always carry the marks on their skin, want to raise their voices against this crime, like Soniya Choudhary. In Agra, the town of Taj Mahal, there's a bar (the Sheroes Hangout) run only by acid attacked women.

The Practice of Light-Sean Cubitt 2014-09-05
Light is the condition of all vision, and the visual media are our most important explorations of this condition. The history of visual technologies reveals a centuries-long project aimed at controlling light. In this book, Sean Cubitt traces a genealogy of the dominant visual media of the twenty-first century -- digital video, film, and photography -- through a history of materials and practices that begins with the inventions of intaglio printing and oil painting. Attending to the specificities of inks and pigments, cathode ray tubes, color film, lenses, screens, and chips, Cubitt argues that we have moved from a hierarchical visual culture focused on semantic values to a more democratic but value-free numerical commodity.Cubitt begins with the invisibility of black, then builds from line to surface to volume and space. He describes Rembrandt's attempts to achieve pure black by tricking the viewer and the rise of geometry as a governing principle in visual technology, seen in Dürer, Hogarth, and Disney, among others. He finds the origins of central features of digital imaging in nineteenth-century printmaking; examines the clash between the physics and psychology of color; explores the representation of space in shadows, layers, and projection; discusses modes of temporal order in still photography, cinema, television, and digital video; and considers the implications of a political aesthetics of visual technology.

Dog Days Bogot4-Alec Soth 2007
After completing the shooting of Sleeping by the Mississippi in 2002, Alec Soth traveled to Bogot4, Colombia to adopt a baby girl. While the courts processed paperwork, he and his wife spent two months in the capital city waiting to take their new baby home. “The baby’s birth mother gave the new parents a book filled with letters, pictures and poems. I hope that the hardness of the world will not hurt your sensitivity,” she wrote, “When I think about you I hope that your life is full of beautiful things.” With these words as a mission statement, Soth began making his own book for his daughter. Soth writes, “In photographing the city of her birth, I hope I’ve described some of the beauty in this hard place.” Beauty makes itself known through ramshackle architecture, the companionship of animals, and the perseverance of the human spirit. Yet, in Dog Days, Bogot4, Soth’s photographs transcend the simple description of beauty and poetically roam through a cast of strays, tough souls, and hints of hope. Alec Soth, born in 1969, is a photographer born and based in Minneapolis, Minnesota. He is the recipient of several major fellowships from the McKnight and Jerome Foundations and was awarded the 2003 Santa Fe Prize for Photography. His work is represented in major public and private collections, including the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, the Museum of Fine Arts Houston and the Walker Art Center in Minneapolis. Soth’s photographs have been featured in numerous solo and group exhibitions, including the 2004 Whitney and S4 Paulo Biennials. His monographs Sleeping by the Mississippi and NIAGARA were published by Steidl. Soth is an associate photographer with Magnum Photos
