LOVE: Driven By Emotions-Malka Yagudayev 2012-03-06 There is so much to say about this four letter word. So many different emotions, scenarios, thoughts. But the truth is when you think of love, you have a certain picture in your mind. Everyone recalls a different thought. That is the beauty of this word. Everyone has some kind of story that pertains to this four letter word. Love has the potential to move mountains, make you the happiest you can ever be, as well as break your heart, bring depressing thoughts, and make you sad. But in every relationship and every chance at love, the power lies in your hands. You have the power to make yourself happy or sad. Be wise with whom you choose to share your heart with. Remember, love is driven by emotions. But it is up to you to decide which emotion to follow and which one to rule out.

Critical Intercultural Communication Pedagogy-Ahmet Atay 2017-12-20 This book addresses different approaches to critical intercultural communication pedagogy. The contributors explore a range of theoretical frameworks and intercultural concepts, and offer practical applications and case studies to illuminate the many facets of critical intercultural communication pedagogy.

Identity Research and Communication-Nilanjana Bardhan 2012-04-05 Identity Research in Intercultural Communication, edited by Nilanjana Bardhan and Mark P. Orbe, is unique in scope because it brings together a vast range of positions on identity scholarship within intercultural communication under one umbrella. It tracks the state of identity research in the field and includes cutting-edge theoretical essays, and queries what kinds of theoretical, methodological, praxiological, and pedagogical boundaries researchers should be pushing in the future. This volume is an essential text for scholars, educators, students, and intercultural consultants and trainers.

On Dialogue-Dmitrii Vladimirovich Nikulin 2006 Drawing from the works of Plato and more contemporary philosophers such as Bakhtin, Buber, Taylor, and Gadamer, On Dialogue explores the necessity of dialogue to being. Author Dmitri Nikulin argues that dialogue is not just a form of communication, but it is the very conditio humana. Nikulin provides a systematic account of dialogue and its role in philosophy, literature, and oral discourse. Exploring the notion of human unfinalizability in dialogical communication, which does not always come to a consensus but is always carried on further in order to express one's self as one's personal other, On Dialogue argues that the human is a dialogical being in perpetual conversation with the other. By offering clues a better understanding of the being, Nikulin's work makes a significant contribution not only to the field of philosophy, but also to the study of anthropology and ontology.

Vigoacre-Chet Hall 2016-09-26 Vigoacre is NOT like anything else you've ever read... it IS like everything you've experienced. This book is about a word we use called VIGOACRE and the trials and tribulations of how communication impacts the efficiency and effectiveness of your vision, goals, actions and results. You will get real world experience, stories, and tools. The results contained within are to make you think about new ideas and new options for helping you and your organization be the most awesome you can be. Aside from technology, communication is the biggest challenge for businesses, organizations, teams and families since WWII. This book is designed to help you enhance your critical thinking and communicate better so you can be more aware and thrive on what is happening around you. Many of the stories and analogies are told from either one or both of our individual experiences, thoughts and perspectives. We have been fortunate to work with many quality companies, professional clients and colleagues', and have had a front row seat to observe their inner most practices. They have taught us what it takes to be successful and how to recover from failure. Vigoacre is not a cookie cutter solution; it's simply an efficient and effective approach for results driven communication. It is the grease for your squeaky wheel; it's your awesomeness.

Nine Character Traits Separating the Men from the Boys-Nate Adams 1994 In this lighthearted yet insightful book, Adams looks at how men mature and why some don't. Using nine of life's arenas, the author shows the differences between the childish man who is stuck in self-oriented boyhood versus the childlike man who sees things from a simple, godly perspective. A non-threatening, encouraging book to help men grow up . . . at least a little.

Life Coach - Discover Your Purpose-Dan Miller 2015-02-14 There is a written rule that some people will succeed no matter how little they try and that others will fail irrespective of how hard they try. The truth is we all live in an existential framework where we are presented with opportunities to pursue our purpose. Despite the odds that are stacked against a considerable portion of humanity, a few people have successfully attained their goals. One interesting thing is that these people do not necessarily come from privileged backgrounds but they have one thing in common; they were able to seize the opportunities available, work hard and ultimately they became prosperous. They live purpose driven lives. When you look at the available data on the lives of successful people, you will find out that because of their determination, they have formed a solid support system and have a well researched and sophisticated toolkit that they use to confront challenges. Determined people are not successful by default but rather they have trained themselves to always think and troubleshoot before undertaking projects and pursuing a certain cause. In their toolkit lie so many things, amongst them resourceful people and mentors, ways to cope with uncertainty and negativity, positive visualizations, goal setting techniques and alternative course of actions. With this determination, you cannot afford to scroll through life without a clear understanding of your inner potential, goals and personal strengths. To understand your purpose, you have to set aside time to think deeply about the things that make you happy when you do them. This is your path of passion and the moment you discover it, pursue it to the very end. In your quest to live a purposeful life, you should zero in on the fundamental components that motivate you so that you do not spend your entire lifetime aimlessly on something that is not in sync with your potential. It is disastrous to waste your time chasing after the wrong goals whether in life, career or business. Instead, you need to find some quality time and ask yourself some soul-searching questions. Find out whether you are currently happy in your life. What can you do to improve it? Take care of unfinished business and find things you are passionate about. Sometimes the light that you need to shine on your path is right within you. It is known as the instinct. Remember the words of Edgar Allan Poe, "If you run out of ideas, follow the road; you will get there.

The Prayer Driven Life-Robert Oh 2011-11-01 What drives you? Or what is the "motivation" or "purpose" of your life? Robert Oh has traveled to close to fifty countries in his lifetime and met hundreds of thousands of God-fearing and God-loving people who are still asking the fundamental question of life: "What does God want me to do with my life?" At the end of your life you don't want to catch yourself saying, "That was it?" You see, without God, your life will be only earthly, natural, and predictable; it won't be supernatural or godly. You reap what you sow. The Prayer Driven Life is an invitation to enter this incredible supernatural life--fashioned by God and through your own prayer. What does God want you to do with your life? Why don't you ask Him? Pray!

The Passion Driven Life-Louis F. Vargas 2009-12-15 The Secrets of Going to the Next Level in Love, Life & Business! The Passion-Driven Life depicts amazing stories, including that of the author's Horatio Alger-like story, which will uplift and "wow" your soul. It reveals lessons, principles and secrets learned about life, money, death, love, financial success, balance, friendship and what is important in life. An immigrant, street-smart kid from a rough family upbringing, an elite college graduate, and making his first fortune on Wall Street, then losing it all, to an amazing come-back as a Chairman of an Inc. 500 company, the authors story conveys a powerful message of hope, Godly faith, possibility and having a fighting spirit. If you are an individual, employee or business executive looking to transform your life, excel further, and have balance. Some of the many things this book reveals are: How to empower thoughts and re-focus on purpose, passion and success, The 7 Secrets of Business Success, How to harness the power of the mind and find out what holds you back, Why lives really not all about you, sorry to disappoint you, The source of unshakeable faith and hope in life, How to overcome setbacks and obstacles, and Unleash balance and enjoyment in your life and live life at the pace of passion.

Being Light Driven-Lisa Miliareisis 2014-06-27 Have you ever felt the presence of spirit? Have you ever wanted to know if those who have passed on can hear us? Have you ever experienced an after-death communication and wanted to learn more? Being Light-Driven—Finding Inner Guidance is an inspirational book that gives insight into life as a medium. By chronicling her early years with numerous experiences, Lisa Miliareisis shares her journey with us. Her story tells of providing proof, comfort, and inner peace to those she has helped by showing them that there is life after death. Lisa also provides insight into the healing benefits of communication and the world of spirit that coexists with us. Not everyone is a medium, but we all have ability and can experience an after-death communication. You too can become Light Driven by learning how to utilize your own internal guidance and live a more harmonious life.

The Purpose Driven Life-Rick Warren 2009-03-17 Another Landmark Book by Rick Warren. You are not an accident. Even before the universe was created, God had you in mind, and he planned you for his purposes. These purposes will extend far beyond the few years you will spend on earth. You were made to last forever! Self-help books often suggest that you try to discover the meaning and purpose of your life by looking within yourself, but Rick Warren says that is the wrong place to start. You must begin with God, your Creator, and his reasons for creating you. You were made by God and for God, and until you understand that, life will never make sense. This book will help you understand why you are alive and God's amazing plan for you---both here and now, and for eternity. Rick Warren will guide you through a personal 40-day spiritual journey that will transform your answer to life's most important question: What on earth am I here for? Knowing God's purpose for creating you will reduce your stress, focus your energy, simplify your decisions, give meaning to your life, and, most importantly, prepare you for eternity. The Purpose Driven Life is a blueprint for Christian living in the 21st century---a lifestyle based on God's eternal purposes, not cultural values. Using over 1,200 scriptural quotes and references, it challenges the conventional definitions of worship, fellowship, discipleship, ministry, and evangelism. In the tradition of Oswald Chambers, Rick Warren offers distilled wisdom on the essence of what life is all about. This is a book of hope and challenge that you will read and re-read, and it will be a classic treasured by generations to come.

Controlled Mothers and Damaged Daughters-Dr Terence C Teasdale 2014-07-14 Controlled mothers, self-centred, neurotic, and narcissistic predators, are the great oppressors of their daughters. They use a heavy, vicious artillery of psychic killers such as bullying, blame, anger, humiliation, the silent treatment, guilt and shame that collectively have devastating and lasting effects on the psychological health and developmental stages of their damaged daughters: socialized into becoming insignificant and unimportant persons not knowing their own sense of self, and a helpless clone of their deceitful controlled mothers.

Reflections on Communication, Education, Scholarship, and Life-Xin-An Lu 2003-07-06 Our actions in education, business, and government are no longer guided by conscious ideals, but by entrenched practices that are products of expediency, indolence, and even tyranny. Inveterate and ubiquitous problems abound. Students hate school. Employees dislike their jobs. Professors become disinclined toward teaching. Boredom and procrastination are everywhere. There are promotion requirements (such as scholarly publications by college professors) that promote nothing and benefit none except to move the person into the next nominal category along the spectrum of the organizational ladder. We are plagued with senseless competitive patterns and numerical evaluations that make life a mere matter of "rat race", the winning of which does not uplift us into the sublimity of humanity, but trammel us in the degradation of being "rats". Essays in this book reflect on and search for answers to widespread and inveterate problems that degenerate modern life into mere livelihood. Products in sober solitude rather than in the societal cacophony, most essays in the book were written during the author's doctoral studies.

Not a Sometimes Love-Keith Korstjens 1981 It began with a vague feeling -- a feeling of "coming down with something." Twenty-four agonizing hours later, the lives of two people had changed forever. On a warm Saturday morning, Keith Korstjens rushed his wife, Mary, a normally healthy, active twenty-four-year-old, to the hospital. That same day, he was told that she had polio and would spend the rest of her life as a quadriplegic. Forty-six years later, Korstjens has a story to tell and retell -- the story of his and Mary's life together since that day, working to build a marriage in a world of respirators, wheelchairs, braces and bedpans. Not a Sometimes Love is an enormously refreshing love story -- from start to finish, it rings true in its testimony to faith, hope, and love. It's a book you will read with tears in your eyes and a smile on your face. Not a Sometimes Love is a timeless guide on learning how to love the way God loves.

L. O. V. E.-Les and Leslie Parrott 2009-12-22 The letters L.O.V.E. represent four personality dimensions that make up your personal "love style." Once you know your own love style and that of your spouse, you will be able to love him or her in a way that will help you get the love you need in return. Relationship experts Drs. Les and Leslie Parrott stand on a mountain of research to show you how this single insight can draw you closer together. Never before have we had such an easy-to-use and scientifically proven tool for pinpointing each person's approach to love. You'll discover how much these dimensions inform your love style: L - Leader: The Take-Charge Spouse O - Optimist: The Encouraging Spouse V - Validator: The Devoted Spouse E - Evaluator: The Careful Spouse The L.O.V.E. online assessment, in combination with this book, will show you how you are designed to approach everything from communication and conflict to sex and intimacy. This is not your typical marriage book. It's a practical tool for learning how to express love to your spouse and feel truly loved in return.

Communication Ethics: Between Cosmopolitanism and Provinciality-Kathleen Glenister Roberts 2008 This volume occasions a dialogue between major authors in the field who engage in a conversation on cosmopolitanism and provinciality from a communication ethics perspective. There is no consensus on what constitutes communication ethics, cosmopolitanism, or provinciality: the task is more modest and diverse and began with contributors being asked what the bias of their work suggests or offers for understanding the theme Communication Ethics: Between Cosmopolitanism and Provinciality. Rather than responding authoritatively, each essay acknowledges the contributor's own work. This book offers no answers, but invites a conversation that is more akin to a beginning, a joining, an admission that there is more than «me», «us», or «my kind» of people, theory, or wisdom. The book will be an excellent resource for instructors and for upper-level undergraduate and graduate courses in communication.
