Practical Manual for Soil, Plant, Water and Seed Testing-P. Gurumurthy Preface In agricultural sciences, the materials of most common interest are soils, plants, irrigation water and seeds. Chemical methods of analysis are needed to test these materials to know their compositions, characteristics and to give necessary recommendations. There was a long felt need to provide a comprehensive practical manual on soil, plant, water and seed testing for the graduate and post graduate students, scientists and technicians working on this aspect.

Methods in Agricultural Chemical Analysis-N. T. Faithfull 2002 This reference manual contains information on the most suitable procedures for the analysis of agricultural materials. It describes the analysis of soils and composts, plant materials, feeds, plant components (e.g. cellulose, lignin, trace elements), fertilizers, and biological substances. The book is designed as a laboratory sourcebook, complete with useful Internet addresses, and contains over 60 different practical methods. Each method is described by a step-by-step approach, and contains details of apparatus required, chemical reaction equations, formulae and calculations, and meticulous descriptions of experimental results. Most methods use standard equipment and instruments commonly found in the practical lab. The aim is that scientists with little experience in analytical techniques should be able to safely carry out these procedures and obtain acceptable results.
