Wings of Twilight-Hans C. Cummings 2011-10-01 Explore the new fantasy World of Calliome with Wings of Twilight, the debut novel in a series that will visit all corners of a world filled with myth, monsters, heroes, and villains. Adventures in the World of Calliome will take readers on a journey where not all heroes are good, not all monsters are evil, and sometimes the world itself has a role to play. Author Hans Cummings has immersed himself in fantasy literature and tropes and real-world history and mythology for nearly thirty years, seeking to incorporate that experience into an engaging fantasy world nearly twenty years in the making. It was a typical day for the crusader Lord Strom Lightbringer, killing draks, stamping out wickedness, and making the world a better place for the righteous. During the course of his crusade, he discovered the location of the fabled Twilight Dungeon, a den of evil shrouded in mystery. No one ever returned from that vile place, so no one knew what lay within. With purpose, Strom and his companions set off to meet their destinies. It was a typical day for Sarvesh, the demonic-looking leader of the Twilight Dungeon's defenders, enjoying beer at the pub, flirting with a snake-haired woman, and dealing with invaders to their home. An exceptional goblin proved to be a harbinger of coming changes, and he found his easy life turned upside down. When the worlds of men and monsters collide in Twilight Dungeon, the lines between man and monster blur. Wings of Twilight is the exhilarating first book in The Foundation of Drak-Anor duology Other Reviews: Cape Rust, Roleplayers Chronicle: "Mr. Cummings takes all of these "been there, done that" plot elements and reshapes them into a novel that is interesting, well-written, and at times, surprising that attacks role-playing standbys at an obtuse angle. This book is well worth your time and money!"
